FARE THEE WELL.

This beautiful production, says the New York Atlas, is copied from the works of a well known, noble bard, at the request of a lady, who we do not often feel inclined to disappoint. We do not think that there will be found in the whole world an individual who will not appreciate the superior merit of the production.

Fare thee well! and if forever, Still forever, fare thee well!

Even though unforgiving, never 'Gainst thee shall my heart rebel. Would that breast were bared before thee, Where thy head so oft hath lain, While that placid sleep came o'er thee, Which thou ne'er canst know again:

Would that breast, by thee glanced over, Every inmost thought would show! Then thou wouldst at last discover 'Twas not well to spurn it so. Though the world for this commend thee-Though it smile upon the blow.

Even its praises more offend thee, Founded on another's woe-Though my many faults defaced me, Could no other arm be found

Than the wail above the dead;

Wakes us from a widowed bed.

And when thou wouldst solace gather,

Wilt thou teach her to say "Father!"

Though his care she must forego?

Think of him thy love had blessed? Should her lineament; resemble

Those thou never more mayst see,

All my faults perchance thou knowest,

Pride, which not a world could bow,

All my madness none can know;

All my hopes, where'er thou goest,

Whither—yet with thee they go. Every feeling hath been shaken;

Bows to thee—by thee forsaken, Even my soul forsakes me now:

But 'tis done-all words are idle-

But the thoughts we cannot bridle

Fare thee well !- thus disunited,

Torn from every nearer tie,

Words from me are vainer still;

Force their way without the will.

More than this, I scarce can die.

Dear Sir-With great pleasure I inform that your preparation of Beech Drop has accomplished for me what I thought beyond the reach of human agency For the last twelve years I have been afflicted with Scrofula of a Cancerous form. So extensive was the ulcers and so herrible my appearance that my case became notorious with all the Faculty in this and the adjoining counties-in fact I had obtained the best medical aid in our State, without any abatement of the disease. Through a friend I procured a half dozen bottles of your Beech Drep, after using it, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me. THE MOST EXTENSIVE BOOT. SHOE AND TRUNK ESTABLISHMENT IN WASHINTON CITY, Just Opened in Iron Hall.

S. the large and spacious store in Iron Hall, Pa avenue, between 9th and 10th streets, and furnished it with perhaps the largest and best selected stock DISEASES ARISING FROM THE IMPURITY of Boots and Shoes ever exhibited in this city.

It is his determination to make this establishment excel in all particulars every other of the kind in the country. With this view he has made arrange ments for a regu ar supply of every article in his line of business with the most celebrated manufacturers in this country, and in future every variety of Boots and Shoes for Ladies, Gentlemen, Children and Servants may here be found at the very lowest I beg leave to refer to the following commend petent to judge of its merits, may be seen in the fact that it has been prescribed by many of our most eminent Physicians in this country, and has attracted the attention of a celebrated profession of HOOVER'S SHOE STORE .- Yesterday we made a visit to the place of business of Mr. S. P. Hoover, in that imposing structure, the Iron Building, on Pennsylvania avenue, between 9th and 10th streets. We have given this notice the modest caption of Shoe Store; but we can truly say that it is a most inviting, and even magnificent, establishment—one highly creditable to the city and to the taste and enterprise of the proprietor. We doubt if there is any of the large business marts of the country an establishment of the kind more extensive, convenient, or beautiful than the one it is our pleasure to notice. The stock of Mr. Hoover is large, and ladies and gentlemen can procure shoes and boots of the most superior quality and at moderate prices. The en terprise of Mr. Hoover should be rewarded by a discriminating public .- Washington Union.

> IRON HALL BOOT AND SHOE SALOON -This establishment, just opened by Mr. S. P. Hoover, is one of the most extensive in the United States, the saloon being one hundred and thirty feet, with twenty-five feet front. Entering, one observes a long line of el egantly made shelves and counters, filled with the fashions of the day in the line. In the rear is the ladies' department, which is carpeted with three ply carpeting, seats and cushions covered with French morceto, and, that the dear creatures may see themselves in all their beauty, as others see them, a magnificent mirror is suspended for their accommo-dation. The mirror, including the rich frame, is eight feet high and three feet and a half wide. Here is, therefore, an unequalled boot and shoe saloon, and the stock therein is at least equal to any in style and manufacture. We were surprised to find so many varieties. There were ladies' high heeled Gaiters, Congress and Button Gaiters, with and without heels; ladies' "Glicerious" slippers, enam-elled toilet, carpet, black and bronze French kid and morocco slippers, Jeffersons and ties, morocco boots of all colors, &c., to suit every taste of the fair purchasers. For gentlemen, there are patent leather and calf skin boots, kid top and cloth Congress Gaiters, English patent leather and low quartered shoes. Suitable for boys we found youths' patent leather heeled pumps, button leather gaiters, Mun roes, Oxford and English ties, fine calf skin and cork soled boots. For girls, he has also a rich and general variety; and for infants and small children the beautiful little foot coverings are quite elegant. We were also shown an assortment of excellent shoes for servants. These, with boot-hooks, button books, and shoe horns, all kinds of trunk, carpet bags, umbrellas, and other articles "to numerous to mention," as Shakspeare says, constitute the material of this magnificent addition to the fine stores on Pennsylvania avenne. The stock is both of home and foreign manufacture, of the best, and sold as cheap as such understandings can be bought in the
